1. Skowronska, chief of personnel of the Polish Oceanic Lines (PLO), has fallen into disfavor even though she is a member of the UB (Security Police) and a party activist. She was considered not to be sufficiently energetic and was transferred to Warsaw. A certain Zebrowski, formerly of the Hartwig firm, has replaced her. During May, Zebrowski discharged over a hundred persons from the fleet and from the administration.
2. The director of the Central Administration of the Polish Merchant Marine (Centralny Zarzad Polskiej Marynarki Handlowej-CZPMH) has been transferred and advanced to a higher position in the Ministry of Shipping in Warsaw.
